2. Purpose

This document sets out the terms and conditions upon which OTE is prepared to provide services regarding the administration of GOs to the Account Holders contemplated by the rules described in the relevant Domain Protocol and the HubCom Protocol issued by the AIB.

Where Transactions are performed upon the request of the Account Holder or involving the Account Holder, in accordance with these Standard Terms and Conditions, the rules described in the Domain Protocol of the Czech Republic and all applicable technical requirements, and the Participants involved do not claim that the Transaction was in any way erroneous, the Account Holder shall in good faith accept the legal consequences of such Transaction.

An integral part of these Standard Terms and Conditions is the Domain protocol of the Czech Republic. For the purpose of this document the Standard Terms and Conditions are understood as the Standard Terms and Conditions including the Domain Protocol of the Czech Republic.

The Standard Terms and Conditions are fully binding for OTE and the Account Holder.

3. Compliance with the rules described in the Standard Terms and Conditions

Account Holders become eligible to have the access to the EZP by committing themselves with OTE to comply with the rules described in the Standard Terms and Conditions, in the Domain Protocol of the Czech Republic. The Account Holder will also be subject to applicable legislation.

The Account Holder shall confirm the acceptance of these Standard Terms and Conditions electronically while accessing the EZP for the first time. If the Account Holder doesn't confirm the acceptance of these Standard Terms and Conditions, his access to the EZP is denied.

4. Obligation to inform

The Account Holder and OTE shall contribute to the implementation of these Standard Terms and Conditions to the extent that the Account Holder and OTE shall provide each other without delay all necessary information required by the application of these Standard Terms and Conditions. If the operation of a Production Device of the Account Holder no longer conforms to the reported information, the Account Holder shall inform OTE immediately about the change.

5. Information systems

OTE issues GOs using an electronic Registry (EZP) which is a part of CS OTE.

Account Holders are required to ensure that settings of the workstation designated for access to EZP comply with minimum requirements for hardware and certified software specified in documents posted on OTE's website.

OTE has the right to change the IT prerequisites for the use of the EZP. OTE shall inform the Account Holders at least 10 calendar days prior to the implementation of material changes. In urgent cases changes can be announced to the Account Holders later but at the time of their implementation at the latest.

OTE shall inform the Account Holders 3 days in advance of planned unavailability of the EZP. The Account Holders shall be informed of other unavailability preventing the use of the EZP as soon as possible.

The Account Holder shall respect the technical requirements and rules of conduct described in the Domain Protocol of the Czech Republic.

6. Liability

The Account Holder and OTE shall at all times act in accordance with the applicable legal provisions, these Standard Terms and Conditions and the Domain Protocol of the Czech Republic.

The Account Holder and OTE shall notify each other about any and all events that they believe may cause damage, and to make every effort to avert potential damage.

If the Account Holder suffers a loss due to gross negligence by OTE, the Account Holder must direct the claim for compensation only against OTE.

If the Account Holder suffers a loss due to gross negligence by a Hub user, Account Holder or third party, the Account Holder must direct the claim for compensation only against the relevant Hub user, Account Holder or third party that has caused the damage.

The AIB, other Hub users or their representatives are not liable for the actions of the negligent Hub user, Competent Body, Account Holder or third party.

The Account Holder has a duty to do everything possible to prevent or limit the extent of the damage. If the Account Holder does not implement adequate measures to prevent or limit the extent of the damage, compensation may be reduced.

The market operator is liable exclusively to the extent corresponding to the amount of so-called actual damage caused to the Account Holder intentionally or due to gross negligence. The market operator is not responsible for damage caused, even partially, due to the fault of the Account Holder, nor for indirect or consequential damage caused to the Account Holder, e.g. lost profit, costs of legal aid, court and administrative or other fees and other costs, claims of third parties or non-pecuniary damage. The liability of the Market Operator for all damages, fines and other sanctions or damages that may arise to the Account Holder in connection with events that occurred within one calendar year is limited to the amount of €5,000 (in words: five thousand euros). Damage compensation a non-property damages for cases where the law does not allow an agreement on such a limitation are governed by legal regulations.

The Account Holder and the Market Operator acknowledge and understand that the operation of the AIB Communication Hub, used for the export/import of Guarantees of Origin, is ensured through the Service Level Agreement concluded between AIB and its supplier, and that any interventions in this direction are provided in accordance with this agreement.

The Market Operator is not liable for any damage arising from technical reasons of AIB or other circumstances, which prevent the transfer of GOs between accounts in any Registry and the EZP.

The Market Operator is not liable for any damage arising from unauthorized use of the security features by any Account Holder or individuals which are not access certificate holders, or any damage arising from non-compliance with the terms of secure access to EZP, or as a result of their misuse by individuals which are not access certificate holders, except for potential misuse by the CS OTE supplier.

The Market Operator is not liable for any damage arising from force majeure. Force majeure means any event occurring irrespective of the Market Operator's will and preventing it from meeting its obligations, provided it cannot be reasonably assumed that the Market Operator could deflect or overcome the obstacle posed. Events caused by force majeure include strike, epidemics, fire, natural disaster, mobilization, war, uprising, seized assets, embargo, terrorist attack, long-term power outage, unauthorized third-party intervention in CS OTE, etc.

The Market Operator shall make every effort to meet its obligations and to do so with the professional care and predictability that is standard and reasonable under the terms applicable in the pertinent sector, whereas the Market Operator is not responsible for the Account Holder's business results. Any negligence liability of the Market Operator is assessed with regard to the processes implemented to solve system failures or technical incidents related to the settlement of the Market Operator's operations or errors of CS OTE. The Market Operator is liable only for damage arising from the use of EZP as a result of gross negligence or deliberate actions of the Market Operator's organs or suppliers. Outside this framework, the Market Operator's sole responsibility is to operate EZP with due care pursuant to these Standard Terms and Conditions. Account Holder acknowledges that the operation of EZP can be interrupted at any time for any reasons and that any suspension of activities thereof under these Standard Terms and Conditions does not constitute any breach of the Market Operator's obligations. If such an event occurs, the Market Operator shall make necessary effort to fix the problem in the shortest time possible.

7. Errors in Issuing the GOs

If OTE or the Account Holder discovers an error in issuing, cancelling or processing of a GO, the other party shall be informed as soon as possible.

If there is an error in the course of issuing, cancelling or processing of a GO or an error due to any unauthorized access to or malfunction of a Registry, OTE and the Account Holder shall co-operate and use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that no unjust enrichment occurs as a result of the error. If there is an error, the GOs held in the Account Holder's account may be withdrawn or amended by OTE. If it has been issued less GOs than the Account Holder required in his request, the Competent Body will issue the GOs as soon as it receives the correct information.

If it transpires that the data in any GO is inaccurate, OTE is entitled to – provided that such GOs are, at the time of such withdrawal, in the "Transferable Account" of that Registrant – withdraw those GOs. If OTE discovers that the GOs in question are no longer on the transfer account of the relevant Registrant, OTE is entitled to adequately reduce the maximum claimable quantity of GOs issued to the Registrant in the following period.

8. Expiry of services of OTE relating to GOs

If the right of OTE to serve as the Competent Body for GOs expires in accordance with a Legislative Certification Scheme, OTE has the right to transfer its obligations to a new Competent Body (if the Legislative Certification Scheme does not define differently). The Account Holder has no right to receive any refund of the paid fees nor other costs.

If OTE no longer acts as Competent Body for a Legislative Certification Scheme, the Account Holder has the right to retrieve its data from the EZP.

9. Fees for the GOs

In accordance with the wording of § 45a, paragraph 6 of Act No. 165/2012 Coll., on supported energy sources and on the amendment of certain laws, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "POZE Act"), the Account Holder is obliged to properly pay the Market Operator the prices for services provided by the Market Operator in connection with guarantees of origin, the amount of which is determined by the currently valid price decision published by the Energy Regulatory Office.

OTE issues an invoice for the fees above to the Account Holder, always for a period of one calendar month, not later than the 15th day of the calendar month following the month for which the invoice is issued. The issuing of GO is subject to value added tax according to Act No. 235/2004 Coll. The VAT date is set as the last day of the month for which the invoice is issued. The invoice is due within 14 calendar days from the date of its issuance.

The invoices complying with the requisites pursuant the Act 235/2004 Coll. on value added tax, as amended, are issued in electronic form and are sent in the PDF format to the e-mail address of a person (one or more) with the access to the EZP no later than two working days from the date of its issuance.

The Account Holder can claim the services that are the subject of the invoice. OTE is obligated to a written statement about the legitimacy of a complaint within 30days of receipt. Making a complaint does not affect the due date.

10. Breach of the Standard Terms and Conditions

The Market Operator has the right to prevent or restrict the access of the Account Holder to the EZP in case of:

- late payment liabilities of the Account Holder exceeding 30 working days,
- the termination of the Account Holder operation or of the validity of the related license,
- gross violation or repeated (two or more violations) of the obligations of these Standard Terms and Conditions by the Account Holder.

The Market Operator is entitled to stop issuing, cancelling or otherwise processing GOs for the Account Holder. The Market Operator also reserves the right to block the access to EZP or close the account of the Account Holder.

11. Change of the Standard Terms and Conditions

The Account Holder understands that the Market Operator is authorized to make unilaterally the necessary changes of these Standard Terms and Conditions, including the addition of new provisions.

The Account Holder acknowledges and understands that the AIB Communication Hub is used by many Hub users and Account Holders, and that modifications to the Hub or the regulatory environment must be applied by all parties involved. This may cause a change of these Standard Terms and Conditions and of the EZP system.

12. Confidentiality and Intellectual Property

Information of commercial, technical, strategic, financial or otherwise sensitive nature, which is not publicly known and is usually considered as valuable and confidential, whether or not it is explicitly indicated as confidential, shall be treated as confidential information by OTE or Account Holder.

Disclosure of such information requires the prior written consent of the other Party.

For the avoidance of doubt, this confidentiality clause does not prevent OTE to give information to authorities including but not limited to the Energy Regulatory Office, Ministry of Industry and Trade, tax authorities and the police authorities, Europol and other administrative authorities and law enforcement authorities.

The software that is used to enable the operation of the Registry and the Transactions, together with all included tools, know-how and related intellectual property rights, is and shall remain the exclusive property of OTE, the AIB or their service providers or licensors. The software code, documentation and in general all related know-how must be considered confidential information, even if not explicitly disclosed as such. The Account Holder shall use the services and the related software only for the purposes of this business activity and shall not copy, reproduce, reverse engineer, decompile nor alter, adapt or modify any part of the software or related documentation.

13. Dispute resolution

The mutual rights and obligations of the Market Operator and the Account Holder and possibly other persons, which relate to the registration and administration of GOs, including the issuance, transfer and other handling of GOs and the provision of related services by the Market Operator, are governed by and will be interpreted in accordance with the laws and other legal regulations of the Czech Republic, in particular the Act on POZE and relevant implementing regulations.

The Account Holder and OTE shall make all effort to settle any disputes in a conciliatory manner. Should disputes not be settled in a conciliatory manner, OTE and/or the Account Holder may file a lawsuit in the general court locally competent in relation to OTE. This change in the local jurisdiction of the court is an agreement between the Market Operator and the Account Holder in the sense of § 89a of Act No. 99/1963 Coll., Civil Procedure Code, as amended.

In case of disputes, the AIB Hub's Data Log may provide evidence as to the data that have been transferred through the Hub and the time thereof and in such case shall be accepted as an evidence.

14. Place of published Standard Terms and Conditions

The Market operator publishes the Standard Terms and Conditions on the website: <http://www.ote-cr.cz>.

15. Final provisions

These Standard Terms and Conditions shall come into effect and become binding for the Account Holders and the Market Operator as of the posting by means enabling the remote access.
